

Discussion Topics: Text-Dependent Questions

1. What resources and structures are necessary at a classroom/school/district level to support the shift towards evidence-based reading and writing through the use of text-dependent questions?
2. What does a classroom/school/district look and sound like when evidence-based reading and writing is a priority?
3. What are the opportunities and challenges related to the shift toward evidence-based reading and writing?