FORMAT FOR COUNCIL FOR TEACHER EDUCATION HEARING

At the Hearing:

1. The Chair, Council for Teacher Education, will review for the CTE the particular teacher education issue in question: admission, retention, evaluation, and recommendation for certification in teacher education programs.
2. The Chair of CTE will facilitate the hearing. Other members of the CTE who may be members of the specific student's department and/or members of TERB may not participate in the deliberations of the Council.
3. During the hearing, the student and the representative of the department are asked to meet separately with the CTE. The student will meet first with the CTE.
4. The student is limited to 30 minutes to present oral remarks regarding the complaint. His or her legal counsel may speak on behalf of the complainant as all or part of the thirty minutes.
5. The members of the CTE may ask the student or legal counsel questions for up to an additional fifteen minutes, if desired. Following the oral testimony and the questions by the CTE members, the student and/or legal counsel will leave the hearing room.
6. The departmental representative is then asked to meet with the Council. The department representative is limited to 30 minutes to present oral remarks regarding the complaint and is asked to provide evidence and rationale as to the department's decision.
7. The members of the CTE may ask the departmental representative questions for up to an additional fifteen minutes, if desired. Following the oral testimony and the questions by the CTE members, the departmental representative will leave the hearing room.
8. Following the oral testimony, the CTE may review the merits of the complaints; it may choose to reschedule another meeting for review; and/or it may make a decision at that time.
9. The members of the CTE will be asked by secret ballot to vote on the decision of the Council. The Chair will announce the results of the ballot. Members of the CTE who may be members of the specific student's department and/or members of TERB may not vote. In the event of a tie, the Chair will vote.
10. When the decision is rendered, the Chair, CTE will inform the complainant in writing of the decision of the CTE within thirty days of the hearing and will communicate the decision to the appropriate parties in writing, including the Office of Clinical Experiences and Certification Processes.
