IDS 274: Preparing for the edTPA (1 credit hour)
Online Winter Session 2018-19

Who should take the course? Any ISU teacher education major* (60+ hours) who wants a better understanding of edTPA and the assessment’s expectations.

When is it being offered? Online December 15, 2018 – January 13, 2019

How is the course structured? This course is offered as a self-pacing experience with materials tailored specifically to your content area. You will explore edTPA in your own content area, including the examination of successful edTPA portfolio materials and prompt instructor feedback.

What have former course participants said about their IDS 274 experience?
“I enjoyed the course and the pacing was great. I can now go into doing the edTPA with more confidence and a better understanding of its layout and the expectations for each task.”

“Thank you for this course. This helped me keep with edTPA/lesson planning practice!”

“This course really prepared me for edTPA.”
