

American of Teacher Educators – Online Preservice Strand

The Association of Teacher Educators (ATE) online preservice teacher strand is a wonderful opportunity for students! Individuals network, share experiences, interact and learn from nationally recognized educational researchers, teachers, and leaders. Preservice teachers will have the opportunity to learn about critical strategies and techniques that will enhance the likelihood for success as new teachers. Presentations are high-energy sessions that are research-driven and reality-based. The ATE preservice strand will be an online event as part of the ATE 2021 Annual Meeting.

Date: February 15th, Presidents' Day

Time: 12:00 – 4:00 Eastern Time

Limited: first 100 preservice students (nation-wide), to help ensure sessions are interactive and engaging

Who: All preservice students are welcome!
